

Hard Pressed

I am hard pressed on every side but I'm not crushed
I feel pulled to pieces but inside I know I'm not
Feels like the world's caving in, find it hard to breathe
The water is rising, won't you come and rescue me
I'm on my knees
O God please come to me

*I fall into Your loving arms
You wrap me up, and I'm secure
Patiently You whisper to me You have a plan
To hold on it won't be long and you understand*

Sick inside again today, I'm struggling to pray
And my head is spinning, cause I cannot see the way
I'm in need of direction, everything seems so unclear
O my God are you out there, or is this falling on deaf ears?
I'm on my knees
O God please come to me

Miracles You will do, as I come and put my hope in you
